

Prime reel estate

Anthony Podesta, outgoing boss of listed salary packaging and car fleet company McMillan Shakespeare, has finally sold his Canterbury mansion for about $9 million. The five-bedroom Monomeath Avenue house that features a 16-seat cinema and swimming pool was sold to a Hong Kong buyer this week in a transaction handled by Abercromby's Tim Derham. Abercromby's sales director Robert Vickers-Willis says it's the fourth time in five weeks the company has sold privately sold properties after unsuccessful campaigns elsewhere.

