

Head strait for the view

Builder Gary Hutchins has sold his Flinders property Fargeet for about $6.5 million.

Jock Langley and Tim Derham, of Abercromby's, negotiated the sale of the Meakins Road property after an international tender that closed early this month.

The contemporary-styled property, which was built in 2003, sits on 37 hectares and has uninterrupted Bass Strait views.

